

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Tuesday, July 11, 2006

-ADVISORY-
GOVERNOR LOADS BUS FOR 'PACK TO SCHOOL'
Governor thanks state employees for donations

Governor Janet Napolitano and representatives from The Salvation Army, Sleep America, radio station 94.5 KOOL FM and Harris Printers will join Arizona state employees in loading a bus with school supplies donated by state employees to Arizona school children.

DATE: Thursday, July 13, 2006

TIME: 9:00 a.m.

LOCATION: Front Steps of State Capitol, Executive Tower
1700 W. Washington St., Phoenix

YOU WILL SEE:

- Governor thanking state employees for successful start of "Pack to School"
- Governor, state employees and representatives from The Salvation Army, Sleep America, radio station 94.5 KOOL FM and Harris Printers loading a bus with school supplies (The bus will be parked on 18th Avenue outside the Executive Tower west entrance.)